

Name: _____

Date: _____

Energy

Across

3. Electricity storage devices that come in a range of sizes.
6. Negatively charged particles that orbit the atom's nucleus.
8. A cell that produces electricity from a chemical reaction.
11. A rise in Earth's average temperature caused by greenhouse gases.
12. A type of power source that uses uranium.
13. Circling currents in the atmosphere that we feel as wind.
14. Heated water vapour used to turn turbines in electricity generators.
15. A scientifically accurate term for technology that transforms light into electricity.

Down

1. One of the elements making up water.
2. Describes 'things of the sun'.
4. Coal, gas, and oil are examples of these kinds of fuels.
5. A scientifically accurate term describing the spectrum of light.
7. Fan-like structures used to turn magnets in power generators.
9. Flow of electrons through a conductor.
10. The force that pulls raised objects towards the ground.

