

Business Development Manager

I spend my time building and managing relationships, so we can continue to grow our renewable energy business. I enjoy negotiating deals and finding the best partners for our projects. I have a keen understanding of lots of industries and their energy needs. Good thing I'm a people person in my job!

Environment

Indoor office

Working at a computer

Meeting new people

Working with hands

Solving problems

Being creative

Working with people

Leading and guiding

Data and details

Skills

- Sales and Marketing
- Customer and Personal Service
- English Language
- Administration and Management
- Education and Training

Qualifications

- Bachelor Degree or higher qualification in marketing, commerce, business management, communications or another related field.
- Some workers have a VET qualification.

Benefits

10% higher salary*[§]

STRONG future demand expected

*Average of all Australian occupations

§ May earn commissions based on performance