

Community Engagement Manager

In my job you've gotta love talking to people, and I sure do! I go out into communities and tell them what's happening in renewable energy in their area. I listen to their concerns, and we work together on solutions. The favourite part of my job is having a cuppa and a yarn with a farmer.

Environment

Indoor office and onsite at project sites

Meeting people in the community

Working at a computer

Working with hands

Solving problems

Being creative

Working with people

Leading and guiding

Data and details

Skills

- Communications and Media
- English Language
- Administration and Management
- Customer and Personal Service
- Sales and Marketing

Qualifications

- Bachelor Degree or higher qualification in community engagement, advertising, marketing and communication or media studies.
- University, VET and IAP2 are all common study pathways

Benefits

60% higher salary*

MODERATE

future demand expected

*Average of all Australian occupations