

Operations Controller

The fact you can flick a switch and get renewable energy in your home is down to me. I coordinate, regulate, and distribute our clean electricity to the grid. I wouldn't say I'm all powerful, but from our control centre, I have your power in my hands! It can be a solitary job, but I have the glow of my many screens for company!

Environment

Indoor office

Working with computers & multiple screens

Working in a control room, including shift work (nights)

Working with hands

Solving problems

Being creative

Working with people

Leading and guiding

Data and details

Skills

- Public Safety and Security
- English Language
- Engineering and Technology
- Computers and Electronics
- Mechanical

Qualifications

- Certificate III or IV in electrotechnology (electrician or systems electrician)
- Licensing or registration required

Benefits

79% higher salary*

MODERATE

future demand expected

*Average of all Australian occupations